About “Mauritius”

Mom has died, leaving half-sisters Mary and Jackie with a rare stamp collection. Mary wants to keep it for its sentimental value. Jackie wants to sell it for the fortune it might be worth. Enter three foul-talking shady stamp dealers determined to get the sale, and an elaborate con game over the dubious inheritance unfolds.

At once a gripping family drama and a delightfully sinister comedy, veteran playwright Theresa Rebeck’s 2007 Broadway hit twists and turns and takes you for a ride until its final shocking scene.
