

Tuesday, April 12, 2011

Seminar Registration
(We still have capacity.)

Seminar topics include:

- Is ACO participation for you? What are the potential upsides? Downsides?
- What's in the 540-page ACO regulatory proposal issued on March 31?
- Should physicians partner with hospitals to create an ACO? With health insurers?
- How can an ACO avoid antitrust trouble?
- What are the new "CO-OPs"? What new opportunities do they offer to physicians?

Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs),
Consumer Operated and Oriented Plans (CO-OPs),
and other new options for physicians

Thursday, April 14, 2011, 7 – 9 p.m.
Crowne Plaza Hotel, Warwick

This seminar for physicians and their staff is presented by the Rhode Island Medical Society with support from the:

Protecting Patients' Access to Care Coalition (PPACC)
NORCAL Mutual Insurance Company
Rhode Island Medical Society Insurance Brokerage Corporation

FACULTY

Henry S. Allen, Jr., Esq., Senior Attorney in Advocacy, American Medical Association
Mr. Allen is a leading expert on antitrust law as it applies to physicians, hospitals and health insurers.

Elias Matsakis, Esq., partner, Holland & Knight, Chicago
Mr. Matsakis heads H&K's legal team guiding complex health industry transactions, including mergers and acquisitions for doctors and hospitals. He is the author of the new chapter
"ACOs, CO-OPs and Other Options" in AMA's how-to manual.

Jeffrey F. Chase-Lubitz, Esq., Donoghue, Barrett & Singal, PC, Providence
Mr. Chase-Lubitz is General Counsel to the Rhode Island Medical Society

Seating is limited. Advance registration is required.

This event is free to RIMS members and their staff; non-members and staff may attend for $25 per person. Non-members may pay on-line via PayPal at www.rimed.org or by check at the door. Please register by sending your response to Cheryl Turcotte, cturcotte@rimed.org.

Directions to Crowne Plaza: Exit 12a off I95 South, Exit 12 off I95 North

We Gratefully Acknowledge the Support of
RIMS Insurance Brokerage Corporation
NORCAL Mutual Insurance Company
Protecting Patients' Access to Care Coalition (PPACC)

